The 11th Annual Take Stock in Children Leadership Prayer Breakfast is taking place at the Bradenton Area Convention Center at 7:30 a.m., Thursday, January 25th, 2018. This year's keynote speaker will be acclaimed collegiate basketball coach and writer, Mike Jarvis. Keynote Speaker, Coach Mike Jarvis, was born on April 11, 1945 in Cambridge, Massachusetts. In 1968 he earned his undergraduate degree in Physical Education from Northeastern University in Boston, Massachusetts and in 1984 he received a Master of Education Degree from Boston University. Coach Jarvis led Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School in Cambridge, Massachusetts to three consecutive Division I State Championships while compiling a near-perfect record of 77-1, and coaching future Hall of Famer, Patrick Ewing.

In 25 years as a Division I head coach he guided Boston University, George Washington University, St. John's, and Florida Atlantic to 14 post season tournaments that included two trips to the Sweet Sixteen, one to the Elite Eight, and the NIT post season Championship in 2003. In 1993, Mike Jarvis Sr. and JR. made NCAA history when they became college basketball's first African American coaching team. That same year they led The George Washington University to their first NCAA appearance in 30 years and a trip to the Sweet 16. Coach Mike Jarvis ended his high school and collegiate coaching career in 2014 with an overall head coaching record of 684-351. In that same year, Coach Jarvis was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Divinity in Leadership & Ministry from the South Florida Bible College and Theological Seminary.

Participation supports the important mission at Take Stock in Children of Manatee County to provide Mentors, College Success Coaches, College Scholarships and Hope to deserving low-income students, breaking the cycle of poverty, through education.
